

Report for the Principal

Lesson Title: Bias Sampling

Page 1 of 1

Name: _____

Now that you have finished your survey and collected your information, the principal has asked you to report your findings. Write a letter to the principal that accurately describes the information you gathered.

Dear Principal,

As you asked, we conducted a survey about homework time. We did a very thorough job and asked investigative questions. The answers people gave us will definitely help you make a good decision. We interviewed _____, and here is what we found out:

| |
|--|
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |

Our official recommendation is that you:

| |
|--|
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |