

Interpretations

Lesson Title: Learn to Think Like an Archaeologist

Page 1 of 1

Name: _____

DIRECTIONS: Make interpretations about your artifacts.

Important Information to be Recorded	Prehistoric Artifact	Historic Artifact
Possible Uses:  Was the artifact used: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- to cut something?</li><li>- to heat something?</li><li>- Other thoughts?</li></ul>
Who might have used the artifact? <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- Men?</li><li>- Women?</li><li>- Children?</li><li>- Hunters?</li><li>- Gatherers?</li><li>- Farmers?</li><li>- Others?</li></ul>
How would you know that what you thought about the artifact was correct?

Adapted with permission from Laurie Miroff and Mary F. Price, Public Archaeology Facility, Binghamton University, SUNY
All rights reserved. Science NetLinks Student Sheets may be reproduced for educational purposes.