

Birds of Prey

Lesson Title: Birds of Prey

Page 1 of 5

Name: _____

Directions: Go online to find information about the following birds of prey.

Golden Eagle

Physical characteristics: (wingspan, physical differences between male and female, color, size, etc.)

Nesting sites:

Typical diet (prey):

Status of species: (Thriving, threatened, or endangered? How do you know?)

Other significant physical features or behaviors characteristic of this bird:

Birds of Prey

Lesson Title: Birds of Prey

Page 2 of 5

Name: _____

Great Horned Owl

Physical characteristics: (wingspan, physical differences between male and female, color, size, etc.)

Nesting sites:

Typical diet (prey):

Status of species: (Thriving, threatened, or endangered? How do you know?)

Other significant physical features or behaviors characteristic of this bird:

Birds of Prey

Lesson Title: Birds of Prey

Page 3 of 5

Name: _____

Broad Winged Hawk

Physical characteristics: (wingspan, physical differences between male and female, color, size, etc.)

Nesting sites:

Typical diet (prey):

Status of species: (Thriving, threatened, or endangered? How do you know?)

Other significant physical features or behaviors characteristic of this bird:

Birds of Prey

Lesson Title: Birds of Prey

Page 4 of 5

Name: _____

Merlin

Physical characteristics: (wingspan, physical differences between male and female, color, size, etc.)

Nesting sites:

Typical diet (prey):

Status of species: (Thriving, threatened, or endangered? How do you know?)

Other significant physical features or behaviors characteristic of this bird:

Birds of Prey

Lesson Title: Birds of Prey

Page 5 of 5

Name: _____

Peregrine Falcon

Physical characteristics: (wingspan, physical differences between male and female, color, size, etc.)

Nesting sites:

Typical diet (prey):

Status of species: (Thriving, threatened, or endangered? How do you know?)

Other significant physical features or behaviors characteristic of this bird: